By car

Highway Venezia - Milano (A4)

On the A4 (Milano Venezia) or on the A13 Padova Bologna PD-BO exit at Padova Est "PD-Es", follow the signs for City Centre, drive along Via San Marco and cross the overpass Venezia. At the second traffic light you should be at Piazzale Stanga, with a small roundabout in the middle of it. Take the second exit (Via Venezia). At the first roundabout you can see The Galileo on your left.

By air

From Venice Marco Polo airport

☞ Taxi: by taxi it takes about 40-60 minutes to get to the hotel.

There are two companies providing a collective shuttle van to the hotel:

- RADIOTAXI: Ph. 049 651333

- LANDOMAS: Ph. 049 8601426

The rate is approximately 30 Euros per person and you have to book at least 24 hours prior to your arrival at the airport.

Since it is a collective shuttle van, it may stop at other locations before arriving at the Galileo.

☞ Coach: there is a regular coach service that runs each half an hour from 6 a.m. to 11 p.m. on weekdays.

On holidays the time table may be subject to changes.

The coaches terminate at Piazzale Boshetti bus station in Padova, 1 mile from the Galileo.

☞ Train: there is a regular coach service connecting the airport to Mestre railway station.

From here you can get whatever train in the direction of Milano, Torino, Bologna or Rome.

All these trains call in Padova. The trip lasts approximately 30 minutes.

From Verona (Villafranca Veronese)Valerio Catullo Airport:

☞ Train: there is a regular coach service connecting the airport to Verona railway station.
